

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LITANIES,

&c.

CHAPTER I.

VARIOUS LITANIES TO THE MOST HOLY TRINITY, AND TO THE PERSONS SEVERALLY.

Note, Pious Reader, that these and the following Litanies, gathered for the most part out of Holy Scripture, contain the Names, Titles, and attributes and praises, appropriated to the Divine Nature, or severally to the Divine Persons. More might have been collected, [or may be added, by any who feel drawn thereto. In using them, take these two rules:—

1. Dwell separately, for some little while, on each sentence, revolving it in your mind, applying it to yourself, enlarging on it towards God, dwelling on the Quality, Name, &c. of Almighty God, and devoutly pleading it to Himself. The one petition, "Have mercy upon us," will thus be found to contain in itself very many prayers.

2. Do not think it necessary to go through the whole of any Litany at once, as though you had a task to say which you ought to get through; but take what suits your wants, or is recommended to you. It is better to pray a little fervently, than much hurriedly. Do not think what you are to say next, or whether you will have time to say all you wish; but pray earnestly, with the help of God, whatever you take to pray. God, Who knoweth what we need before we ask Him, does not need many words, but much fervour. Your Lord, as an Example for you, when in the Garden, "went away again and prayed the third time, saying the same words." (St. Matt. xxvi. 44.) Pray in whatever way you find you can pray best: desire really that God would hear you, and He will.—ED.]

Deliver us, O HOLY TRINITY.

We beseech Thee to hear us.

From greediness, gluttony, and indulgence of the appetite,
 From anger, envy, and all ill-will,
 From all luxuriousness and uncleanness,
 From all sloth and undue gloominess,
 By the Immensity of Thy Power,
 By the Infiniteness of Thy Wisdom,
 By the Abundance of Thy Goodness, By the Eternity of Thy Glory and Thy Majesty,
 By the Depth of Thy Knowledge and Thy Providence,
 By the unspeakable Greatness of Thy Love and Pity,
 By the Unfathomableness of Thy Justice and Thy Judgments,
 In the Day of Judgment,
 We, sinners, beseech Thee to hear us, That we may serve Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, That we may worship Thee, the LORD our God, and serve Thee only,
 That we may never take Thy Holy Name in vain,
 That we may sanctify the holy and festal days of the Church, by religious and pious works, That we may pay all due honour, reverence, and obedience to our parents, bishops, superiors, and all who are to us in the place of parents,
 That we may never, from anger, hatred, or envy, hurt the life, good name, or reputation of any man,

That we injure no man by hurt, theft, or any wrong whatsoever, whether by violence or guile,

That we may keep our heart from all carnal desires and unclean affections,

That we never bear false witness, or speak a lie against our neighbour,

That we covet not the goods of our neighbour,

That we may love Thee, our God, with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our strength,

That we may love Thee above all things, and our neighbour, for Thy sake, as ourselves,

That we do not to another that we would not have done to us,

That Thou wouldest make all grace abound in us,

That we despise not the riches of Thy goodness, patience, and long-suffering,

That we may present our bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God,

That we may present our bodies a living sacrifice,

That Thou vouchsafe to bring us to the kingdom Thou hast prepared for us from the foundation of the world,

LAMB OF GOD, That takest away the sins of the world, reconcile the Father to us,

LAMB OF GOD, That takest away the sins of the world, be propitious to us, sinners,

We beseech Thee to hear us.

LAMB OF GOD, That takest away the sins of the world, give us the HOLY SPIRIT.

O Blessed TRINITY, hear us,

O Adorable TRINITY, hearken unto us,

LORD, have mercy,

CHRIST, have mercy,

LORD, have mercy.

Our FATHER, Which art in Heaven, &c.

Ÿ. Blessed art Thou, O LORD GOD of our fathers,

R/. Worthy to be praised and glorious for ever.

Ÿ. Blessed art Thou, O LORD, in the firmament of Heaven,

R/. Worthy to be praised, glorious, and highly exalted for ever.

Ÿ. Let all Thy Angels and Saints bless Thee,

R/. Praise Thee and glorify Thee for ever.

Ÿ. Bless we the FATHER, and the SON, with the HOLY GHOST,

R/. Praise we and magnify we Him for ever.

Ÿ. O LORD, hear my prayer,

R/. And let my cry come unto Thee.

LET US PRAY.

Almighty and Everlasting GOD, Who hast given us, Thy servants, grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the Eternal TRINITY, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity, we beseech Thee, that by steadfastness in this faith, we may evermore be defended from all adversities.

O GOD, Who declarest Thy Almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity, multiply upon us Thy mercy, that we, running the way of Thy commandments, may obtain Thy gracious promises and be made partakers of Thy heavenly treasure.

Almighty and everlasting God, Who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; pour down upon us the abundance of Thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those things which we are not worthy to ask, through CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

By Thy Blood Thou sheddest for the remission of our sins, Good LORD, deliver us.

In the day of tribulation and anguish, and of Thy awful judgment, Good LORD, deliver us.

PART VI.

We sinners do beseech Thee to hear us,
That it may please Thee to bring us to true repentance,

That, condemning ourselves, we may escape Thy condemnation ⁶⁰,

That we may bring forth in time worthy fruits of penitence ⁶¹,

That, as we have yielded our members as servants of uncleanness and iniquity, so we may now yield them as servants of righteousness unto holiness ⁶²,

That we give not place to the Devil, and that the sun go not down upon our wrath ⁶³,

That, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we may live soberly, righteously, and godly ⁶⁴,

That we may chastise our bodies, and bring them into subjection ⁶⁵,

We beseech Thee to hear us.

 of unrighteousness ⁶⁷,
 That we love not the world, neither the things that are in the world ⁶⁸.

PART VII.

That we be not conformed to the world, but transformed by the renewing of our mind ⁶⁹, That we be not over-wise above what is fitting, but that we be wise unto sobriety ⁷⁰, That we be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess ⁷¹,
 That, as true members of Christ, we crucify our flesh with its passions and lusts ⁷², That no corrupt communication proceed out of our mouth, but such as is good to the edifying of the faith ⁷³, That all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, be put away from us ⁷⁴, That we become not desirous of vain glory ⁷⁵, That we put off the old man and his deeds, and put on the new man in righteousness and true holiness ⁷⁶, the Spirit mortify the deeds of the body ⁷⁷,

That, putting on the armour of God, we may be able to resist the wiles of the Devil ⁸⁰,

That we may work out our own salvation with fear and trembling ⁸¹,

That we may count all things but loss for CHRIST ⁸²,

That being dead to sin, we may live to righteousness ⁸³,

That, through the many tribulations of this world, Thou vouchsafe us entrance into the kingdom of God ⁸⁴,

℞. And stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

℣. O LORD, hear my prayer.

℞. And let my cry come unto Thee.

LET US PRAY.

O God, Who rejectest not the greatest sinner, but in loving pity art reconciled to him by penitence, mercifully regard our lowly supplications, and give us strength to fulfil Thy Commandments.

O God, Who justifiest the wicked, and wouldest not the death of a sinner, we humbly beseech Thy Majesty bountifully to protect with heavenly succour, and to preserve by Thy continual help, us Thy servants, who trust only in Thy mercy; so that we may constantly serve Thee, and that no temptations may separate us from Thee.

O God, Who desirest not the death of sinners, but their repentance, most mercifully regard the weakness of our mortal nature, and strengthen our endeavours by Thy goodness, that of Thy infinite mercy we may obtain pardon for our sins, steadfastness in Thy service, and finally, with joy, the rewards promised to those who persevere unto the end, through our Lord JESUS CHRIST, &c.

LET US PRAY.

O GOD, Who makest all things to work together for good to them that love Thee, pour into our hearts such stedfast love to Thee, that our longings, which by Thy inspiration we conceive, may not be turned aside by any temptation.

O GOD, Who resistest the proud, and givest grace unto the humble, grant unto us the virtue of true humility, which Thine Only Begotten set forth in Himself, to His faithful servants; that we may never be lifted up so as to provoke Thine indignation against us, but rather, being subdued, may receive the gifts of Thy grace.

Burn, O LORD, our heart and reins with the fire of the HOLY GHOST; that we may serve Thee with a chaste body, and please Thee with a clean heart.

O GOD, Who by the endurance of Thine Only Begotten hast bruised the pride of the old enemy, grant to us, we beseech Thee, worthily to call to mind what He lovingly endured for us; that so, by His Example, we may patiently bear our adversities.

O God, Who justifiest the ungodly, and willest not the death of a sinner, we humbly beseech Thy Majesty, with Thy heavenly aid, graciously to protect us, Thy servants, who lean only on Thy mercy, and to keep us with Thy continual defence; that no temptation may ever separate us from Thee, but, that running unwearied the race of virtue, we may at length receive the Prize, through our LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

AN EUCHARISTIC LITANY, FOR THE USE BOTH OF PRIESTS AND COMMUNICANTS,

Gathered out of Holy Scripture.

NOTE.—The passages included between brackets [] are for Priests alone, and may be passed over by others.

LORD, have mercy.

CHRIST, have mercy.

LORD, have mercy.

O God, the Father of heaven, Who so lovedst the world as to give Thine Only-begotten SON to take upon Him our flesh and to suffer death upon the Cross, Have mercy upon me,

That I may receive Him with entire affection and with the inmost feelings of love ; and that I may give up my whole self, all that I am, to Thee, and live not to myself, but to Thee.

O Eternal FATHER, Who out of love to us sparedst not Thine Own SON, but gavest Him up for us all, Have mercy upon me,

That I may with a grateful heart meditate on this work of such exceeding love, and commemorate it in this sacred Mystery.

O Most Holy FATHER, Who didst send Thy SON into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved, Have mercy upon me,

That His Body and Blood may not be unto me for judgment and condemnation, but for life and salvation.

O FATHER, of Infinite Wisdom, who with wonderful Counsell hast wrought our salvation in the midst of the earth, and hast willed that Thy SON, Whom from Eternity Thou hast begotten Equal with Thyself, should, in time, be born of a Virgin, and should be in this Sacrament in a new and wonderful manner, and be present with us even to the end of the world, Have mercy upon me,

That I may never be ungrateful for the blessings of such Thine unspeakable grace and love.

O FATHER, supremely Excellent, With Whom we have an Advocate, JESUS CHRIST, Who is the propitiation for our sins, Have mercy upon me,

That through Him I may obtain from Thee pardon and forgiveness of all my sins ; for, Behold, He is the Lamb of God That taketh away the sins of the world.

O FATHER, Most Mighty, Who with a loud voice didst bear witness that He is Thy Beloved SON in Whom Thou art well pleased, Have mercy upon me, And, because by my own doings I am not able to please Thee, look upon the Face of Thy CHRIST, that through Him I may find grace in Thy sight.

O FATHER, Most Bountiful, Who, according to the promise of Thy Most Well-beloved SON, wilt give unto us whatsoever we shall ask in His Name, Have mercy upon me,

That I may obtain this one thing, for which I earnestly pray ; that I may never receive the Mysteries of the Body and Blood of Thy SON unworthily, nor to my condemnation.

O FATHER of the fatherless, on Whom the eyes of all do wait, and Thou givest them meat in due season, Have mercy upon me,

And give me this day my Daily Bread, even that Living Bread Which came down from heaven ; that It may strengthen and nourish my heart unto life eternal.

II.

O GOD the SON, REDEEMER of the world, Who, of Thine Infinite Love, didst undertake the work of our redemption ; and, taking flesh in the most chaste womb of the Virgin Mary, wast made in the likeness of man, and wast found in fashion as a Man, Have mercy upon me,

That I may cherish in my inmost heart the memory of both this Thy boundless love, and of Thy most Holy Incarnation, whensoever, by means of this Sacrament, Thou shalt be born, as it were, in my soul.

JESU, Most Sweet SAVIOUR, Who hast prepared a table before us against all them that trouble us, Have mercy upon me,

That mine enemies may never prevail against me; and that I may fear no evil, because Thou art with me, and in this Sacrament most inwardly present to me.

JESU, most Worthy of all love, Who hast said, Come unto Me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you, Have mercy upon me,

That I may be delivered from the weight of my sins, which are like a sore burden upon me, too heavy for me to bear; and with this heavenly Food do Thou refresh my heavy and fainting spirit.

JESU, Most Pitiful, Who hadst compassion upon the multitude who had long waited on Thee, and when they had nothing to eat, didst, by a wonderful exercise of Thy power, feed them all to the full, Have mercy upon me,

That I may not faint by the way, being deprived of that Heavenly Nourishment.

JESU, Most Bountiful, Who hast given unto us the True Bread, that yieldeth royal dainties; and

Who feedest us with the marrow of wheat, Have mercy upon me,

That my soul may be satisfied even as it were with marrow and fatness; and that my heart may never be withered, so that I shall forget to eat my Bread.

JESU, Most Benign, Who exhortest us to receive Thee, saying, My Flesh is meat indeed, and My Blood is drink indeed; and, Unless ye shall eat the Flesh of the SON of Man, and drink His Blood, ye shall have no life in you, Have mercy upon me,

That I may worthily eat this Bread and drink this Cup, so that I shall hunger no more, nor thirst any more, nor die eternally.

JESU, Most Sweet, Whom Zacchæus received with joy into his house; and Whom the Centurion, out of reverence, did not dare to invite under his roof, Have mercy upon me,

That I may ever combine the feelings of them both, love and fear, whensoever I receive Thee into my house.

JESU, Most Lowly, Who didst vouchsafe to consort and to eat, even with publicans and sinners, saying, The whole need not a physician, but they that are sick, Have mercy upon me,

And vouchsafe to be the Guest of me also, a sinner, and heal my soul, which is sick even unto death.

JESU, Great and Marvellous King, Who, that Thou mightest display the power and riches of Thy kingdom, hast prepared for us a great Feast, and hast deigned so lovingly to invite to it all the subjects of Thy kingdom, Have mercy upon me,

That I may come to this Divine Feast with joy and alacrity, yet never without being clothed in a wedding garment.

JESU, Most Loving, Who, before Thy Passion, desiredst with desire to eat this Passover with Thy disciples, Have mercy upon me,

That as the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so my soul may in this Sacrament pant after Thee, the Living God.

JESU, Most Pure, Who when Thou wert about to institute this Sacrament, didst first, with Thy Knees upon the earth, wash the feet of Thy disciples, in token of the purity and cleanness which Thou wouldest enjoin upon us when about to receive these holy Mysteries, Have mercy upon me,

And wash me thoroughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my sin: wash, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head; so that my affections and deeds and intentions may be pure, whensoever I desire to be a partaker of Thy Table.

JESU, Most Gracious, Who hast planted the Tree of Life in the midst of the Garden, that is, of Thy Church, as a remedy for all the diseases of the soul, and even its very death, Have mercy upon me,

That I may there gather the fruit of life and immortality, and that by it my youth may be renewed as the eagle's.

JESU, Most Bountiful, Who hast given Thyself to us, Born, to be one with us ; Living with us, to be our Food ; Dying, to be our Ransom ; and Reigning, wilt at length give Thyself to us as our Reward, Have mercy upon me,

That for these so great benefits my soul may bless Thee at all times ; and that all that is within me may bless Thy Holy Name.

JESU, Most Truthful, Who giving Thyself to be Meat and Drink, didst say, This is My Body Which is given for you, and, This is My Blood which is shed for you, Have mercy upon me,

That I stagger not in faith at the words of Thy mouth ; for Thou art the Truth Itself, in Whose mouth there is no guile nor deceit ; Thou art also the Mighty God, with Whom nothing is impossible.

JESU, Most Tender, Who, when Thou wast about to depart out of this world unto the Father, didst leave us a lasting monument of Thy great love ; and in this Sacrament didst appoint a Memorial of Thy wondrous works, commanding us to do this in remembrance of Thee, Have mercy upon me,

That I may be always most mindful of Thee, and may constantly adore Thine ineffable Power, Wisdom, and Goodness, shining forth here ; and may never forget all Thy benefits.

JESU, Most Meek, Who, at Thy Last Supper, wouldest not shut out even Judas from the company of the disciples and from Thy Table, Have mercy upon me,

That I, who am, alas ! Thy most unworthy and unfaithful servant, may yet never, with Judas, be guilty of Thy Body and Blood.

JESU, Most Thankful, Who, when this Mystery wast accomplished in the sight of Thy disciples, didst give thanks to the Eternal Father, and having sung an hymn, wentest out into the garden, Thy wonted place of prayer, Have mercy upon me,

That I may never retire from this surpassing Feast with a thankless heart ; but that seriously reflecting on so great a benefit, my soul may more and more burn with love towards Thee.

JESU, PRIEST FOR EVER, Who didst offer Thyself as a Victim upon the Altar of the Cross ; GOOD SHEPHERD, Who didst lay down Thy life for Thy sheep, and dost feed them with Thy Very Body and Blood, Have mercy upon me,

And whereas I have gone astray as a sheep that is lost, seek out Thy servant, and bear me on Thy shoulders back to Thy fold, and feed me in that green pasture wherein Thou hast placed me.

JESU, Most Compassionate, Who, under the form of a stranger, didst join Thyself to the disciples who were going to Emmaus, and at length madest Thyself known to them in the breaking of Bread, Have mercy upon me,

That as I believe Thee to be truly present with me under these visible forms, although I see Thee not with mine eyes, so I may at length be counted worthy to behold Thee with unveiled face ; and as meanwhile Thou vouchsafest to uphold me on my way with Thy sweet converse, and to feed me with the Food of Thy Body, my heart may burn within me with love and longing for Thee.

III.

O GOD, the HOLY GHOST, Who, by the wonderful exercise of Thy Divine Power, didst effect the Mystery of the Incarnation of our LORD JESUS CHRIST in the Virgin's womb, making her in an ineffable manner fruitful, and sanctifying her, that she might be a fit receptacle for the SON OF GOD, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may, in this Sacrament, receive the same my Lord and my God, with pure affections and a clean heart; and may be able henceforward by works of holiness to manifest Him openly.

IV.

HOLY TRINITY, ONE GOD, Who openest Thine Hand, and fillest all things living with plenteousness, Have mercy upon me,

That the Bread Which strengtheneth man's heart may be given to me to eat, and that in the strength of that Food I may walk through this wilderness even to Thy Holy Mount.

HOLY TRINITY, ONE GOD, Who didst command the children of Israel, in memory of their deliverance from the hard bondage of Pharaoh, to eat the Paschal Lamb, that type of our Saviour, Have mercy upon me,

That as often as I partake of these Divine Mysteries I may, with grateful heart, reflect upon the work of our Redemption.

HOLY TRINITY, ONE GOD, Who, while the children of Israel were passing through the wilderness, didst feed them with manna from heaven, even with Angels' Food, which possesseth in itself all manner of delight; but when after awhile they loathed it, didst punish them with severity, Have mercy upon me,

That with the cleansed palate of my heart, I may taste and see how gracious the Lord is; and that my soul may never loathe that Food as light and unsatisfying.

HOLY TRINITY, ONE GOD, Who didst of old, not once only, chastise with heavy punishment irreverence and wrong in regard to sacrifices and the ark, figures only and shadows of this our Sacrament, Have mercy upon me,

That warned by these examples, I may give all diligence to treat these Holy Mysteries the more warily, more holily and devoutly.

[HOLY TRINITY, ONE GOD, Who of Thine Infinite Clemency hast chosen me into Thy Ministry, and, raising the poor out of the mire, hast willed that I should exercise the priesthood, and offer gifts and Sacrifices unto Thee for a sweet-smelling savour, Have mercy upon me,

That my life and conduct may be answerable to this so high and holy calling; and that I may always with pure hands and clean heart offer unto Thee the Sacrifice of praise, and pay my vows unto Thee, the Most Highest.

HOLY TRINITY, ONE GOD, Who wouldest have Thy Ministers to be holy, saying, Be ye holy, for I am holy, Have mercy upon me,

That my heart being weaned from all worldly cares and carnal desires, I may serve before Thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of my life.]

V.

A LITANY PRAYING ALMIGHTY GOD FOR GRACES CORRESPONDING TO THOSE WHICH HE HAS BESTOWED ON THE SAINTS AND CHURCH IN HEAVEN, WITH WHOM WE HAVE COMMUNION.

O God, Who didst choose Mary, Blessed among women, for that most profound Mystery of the Incarnation of the LORD; and didst prepare her by the HOLY GHOST to conceive in her most pure womb the LORD of heaven and earth, to bear Him for nine months, and to give birth to the SAVIOUR of the world, Have mercy upon me,

That I, Thine unworthy servant, may, in this Sacrament, with a pure mind receive and bear within me that Same LORD, even Thy SON.

O God, Who didst order that Angels and Arch-angels should humbly adore their LORD, made Man for us, and should with amazement worship their King lying in a manger; should bring the tidings of great joy that a SAVIOUR was born; and now that He reigneth in heaven, always minister unto Him; yea, and when the Priest celebrateth, should in adoring hosts² encompass His very Altar, Have mercy upon me,

That I may always treat this Bread of Angels with due reverence; and that my heart may be so strengthened by the frequent participation of CHRIST, that mine enemies may never prevail against me.

O God, Who didst elect Joseph to be the betrothed husband of Mary, Mother of God, and to be the foster-father of CHRIST JESUS; and didst give him grace to bestow on her diligent care and kindness, and to pay to his supposed SON all worship and honour, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may be as a servant in this Holy Family; and that to CHRIST, especially in this venerable Sacrament, I may ever pay due worship and reverence.

VI.

O God, Who didst inspire Holy Simeon with patient expectation and ardent longing to see the ² See S. Chrys. de Sac. vi. 4, S. Greg. the Great, and others.

Messiah, and didst at length vouchsafe unto him to see Him with his eyes and to take Him up in his arms, saying for joy, LORD, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may ardently desire to see JESUS in glory ; and with no less longing may ever pant after Him, truly present in this Sacrament, and may most sweetly enfold Him in the arms of my soul.

O GOD, Who by the leading of a star didst bring the Magi from a distant country, and guide them to the new-born King of kings ; and didst give them grace also humbly to offer Him their gifts ; falling down to the ground, with singular faith and deepest devotion, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may come with like faith and devotion to adore the Same King, truly present in this Sacrament, and to honour Him with my offerings, mean though they be ; or rather, that I may be presented with His gifts, and received with the same clemency as they.

O GOD, Who didst inspire all the Holy Patriarchs and Prophets, prefiguring by divers types and shadows the mysteries of this Sacrifice and Sacrament, with earnest longing and many prayers and sighs to breathe after the Messiah, Have mercy upon me,

That I may with piety approach, and into a pure heart receive, not the shadow but the Substance, not the figure but the Reality ; not the Ark but the Holy of Holies ; not sheep or oxen, but the Very SON of GOD Himself.

O GOD, Who didst consecrate the tender bodies of the Holy Innocents, as Infant Martyrs to the New-born CHRIST, and didst in them hallow the very years of infancy and innocence, Have mercy upon me,

That I may go with innocency to the Altar of GOD, and with this Sacrament may present myself a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to my GOD.

O GOD, Whose servant St. John Baptist, when visited by CHRIST and His Virgin Mother, did for joy leap in his mother's womb, yet afterward did not think himself worthy to unloose His shoe-latchet: and yet Thou didst vouchsafe to him, that by the Voice of CHRIST Himself he should be called the greatest among those born of women, and more than a prophet; and that, baptizing Him, he should touch His Sacred Head, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may go with joy unto the Altar of GOD, Who gladdeneth my youth; and yet that I may not appear before His tremendous Majesty without fear and deep humility.

VII.

O GOD, Eternal Father, by Whose revelation, not taught by flesh and blood, St. Peter did confess that JESUS was the CHRIST, the SON of the Living GOD; from Whom also he received the command to feed His sheep, and the keys of the kingdom of heaven, Have mercy upon me,

That with lively and unshaken faith I may confess JESUS CHRIST in this Sacrament the true GOD and my LORD; and that owning Him truly and really present here, I may offer Him due reverence.

O GOD, Who didst cause St. Paul of a wolf to become a lamb, of a persecutor to become a preacher of the Gospel; of a vessel unto dishonour to become a chosen vessel unto Thee; and having taken him up into the third heaven, didst in a wonderful manner instruct him in heavenly mysteries, so that in words of weightiest import he declared the institution and right use of this Sacrament, Have mercy upon me,

That whensoever I would approach these awful mysteries, I may, according to his monition, seriously examine myself, and take anxious heed that I receive them not to my condemnation and death, nor be ever guilty of the Body and Blood of the LORD.

O GOD, Whose servant St. John, the beloved of the LORD, did in the Last Supper, out of singular love to his Master and confidence in His love towards Him, lie on the bosom of his LORD, and did thence imbibe those heavenly streams which he afterwards poured forth in his Gospel; and, as an eagle, took a higher flight, that he might gaze on the Mysteries of the Divine and Incarnate Word, and then disclose them unto us, Have mercy upon me,

That I may be drawn by love to CHRIST my SAVIOUR, present in this Sacrament, rather than be kept back from Him by fear; and that with holy affiance I may lean upon my Beloved, and with joy draw Living Water out of the wells of Salvation.

O GOD, Who by Thy SON JESUS CHRIST didst in that Last Supper confer the Priesthood on all Thy holy Apostles, and gavest them power to consecrate these holy Mysteries, when by the previous washing of their feet as a symbol of purity, He had admonished them of the necessity of inward cleanness, and so admitted them to eat of the True Lamb, even the Body and Blood of their LORD, Grant that I may hold in due honour and reverence the grace and office of the Priesthood, and that I may never come to the participation of these Divine Mysteries without having first purified my conscience.

O GOD, Who didst inspire the Holy Evangelists to record by clear testimony the institution of this Sacrament, Have mercy upon me,

That I may ever venerate, and partake of this great Mystery with full faith, lively hope, and fervent charity.

O GOD, Who didst give such grace to the holy Disciples of the LORD, that, together with the first believers, they continued daily in the breaking of bread, so that the faithful were of one heart and one soul, and none of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own, Have mercy upon us,

That we also who are partakers of One Bread and One Cup may come to the Sacrament of peace and love in the unity of peace and in the bond of charity; and that all speaking and minding the same things, we may thus with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even our LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who is our Peace, making both one.

VIII.

O God, Who didst strengthen the Holy Martyrs to make an offering of their body and blood unto CHRIST, the King of Martyrs, Who offered up His own Body and Blood for us on the Altar of the Cross, Grant that I, by spiritual Martyrdom, may mortify my members which are upon the earth; and whensoever I would partake of the Sacred Mysteries, may first present myself a living sacrifice to God, acceptable, holy, and well-pleasing unto God, a sacrifice of righteousness for an odour of sweetness.

O God, Who didst give grace to all holy Bishops and Confessors, Priests of the LORD, as Ministers of CHRIST and faithful dispensers of Thy Mysteries, holily to perform the office of the Priesthood, frequently to offer for the people a Sacrifice acceptable unto Thee, and unweariedly to feed the same with the Bread of the Word and the Sacrament, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may with all diligence perform the office of a faithful Christian, that I may never be found to have despised the healing gifts of salvation, or to have received the grace of GOD in vain.

IX.

O God, Who didst give such grace to the holy Anchorites and Ascetics of old, that going forth from the Egypt of this world, that is, dead to the world, removed from the breasts and weaned from the milk which the world giveth to drink, they longed no more for its flesh-pots, but manfully trampling on the desires of the flesh, their souls were fed in the wilderness of this world, with the Food of Angels, the Manna from Heaven, the Living Bread, until they came to the Land of Promise, flowing with milk and honey, Have mercy upon me,

That I too may loathe the miserable meats of Egypt, despising the pleasures of the world, out of longing for This Heavenly Food, and that, having the children's Bread given me to eat, I may have no pleasure in the husks of swine.

O God, Who didst give grace to all holy Virgins and Widows, with more than manly soul, to hold a stedfast purpose of continence and chastity, and so to offer their bodies a living sacrifice to their

Bridegroom the Living GOD, and now to be admitted to the Marriage-Supper of the LAMB, Have mercy upon me,

That I, through that Wine, ³ Which maketh virgins to grow, may imbibe a love of chastity, and with the love of a pure heart be ever held in an indissoluble bond of union with the Bridegroom, and from my inmost soul and with my whole affections embrace Him, truly Present in this Sacrament, and be admitted to His Holy Kiss ⁴.

O GOD, Who didst give grace to Thy servant, Mary Magdalene, together with her sister, to receive CHRIST into her house, and there, abstaining from serving, to sit at the Feet of the LORD and hear His words; and before, at the Pharisee's feast, to wash the Feet of the LORD with large streams of tears, and to wipe them with the hair of her head, thus showing openly both her love for the LORD and her grief for her sins; and, at length, as He hung upon the Cross, to cleave unto Him, and with burning,

³ Zech. ix. 17.

⁴ Cant. i. 2. "Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His Mouth," is interpreted of the H. Comm., as the highest union with our LORD here below, by S. Ambrose, Ep. 42, § 15, "We kiss CHRIST with the kiss of Communion," (add de Isaac, c. 3, and de Sacram. v. 2; see further, note q, on S. Cyprian, Ep. vi. p. 15, Oxf. Tr.) Hence a profane Communion is likened to the kiss of Judas.

eager love, to seek Him in the tomb, Have mercy upon me,

That I also may withdraw my heart from the cares of the world, and may seek above all things to give myself to GOD in holy retirement; and that whensoever I would draw near to my LORD in this Sacrament, I may first offer to my GOD the tears of a contrite heart, and with joy cleave unto Him Crucified, desiring not to glory in any thing save in the Cross of my LORD JESUS CHRIST.

O GOD, Who hast brought all Thy Blessed and Elect Saints to that haven, whither we, unhappy, are but tending, where now, in their home, with open face, in beatific vision, they behold, and, with enlarged mouth, do feed upon That Bread, Which we see only through a glass darkly, and receive veiled under another Form.—O how, amidst so many storms and perils, do we need Food for the way, that we may win our way! CHRIST is our Food for the way: He is the Way, and the Truth, and the Life, the sole Solace of our pilgrimage,—Have mercy upon us,

That we may at least be supported by Him by the way, until with them we too are satisfied with the plenteousness of Thine house, and drink of Thy pleasures as out of a river.

• PRAYER.

O GOD, Who, under this marvellous Sacrament, hast left us a memorial of Thy Passion, grant, wo beseech Thee, that we may so venerate the sacred Mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, that we may ever feel within us the fruit of Thy Redemption; Who livest and reignest with the FATHER in the Unity of the HOLY GHOST, One God, world without end. Amen.

From all the pain of sickness,
 From a sudden, unprepared, and evil death,
 By the pain and torment of Thy Circumcision ⁶⁸,

By the pains of death which encompassed Thee in the garden, when Thy Passion was at hand ⁶⁹,

By the zeal of Thy love, whereby Thou didst bear our griefs, and carry our sorrows, and heal us with Thy stripes ⁷⁰,

By the anguish of Thy Heart upon the Cross, when Thou didst cry aloud, that Thy FATHER had forsaken Thee ⁷¹,

By the sword of grief wherewith the heart of Thy blessed Mother was pierced, through Thy Passion ⁷²,

We sinners do beseech Thee to hear us.

That we may confess ourselves to be strangers and pilgrims upon the earth ⁷³,

That having here no continuing city, we may seek the more earnestly one to come ⁷⁴,

That amongst so many storms and perils of life, we may hasten to enter into that rest which we hope for in heaven ⁷⁵,

That our light affliction, which is but for a moment, may work in us an eternal weight of glory ⁷⁶,

That we may not despise the chastening of the LORD, nor faint when we are rebuked of Him ⁷⁷,

Deliver us, O Lord.

We beseech Thee to hear us.

That we may take cheerfully whatsoever shall be brought upon us, and be patient under suffering ⁷⁸,
 That in all our diseases and afflictions, we may say nothing foolishly against the LORD ⁷⁹, That as we have received good of the Hand of the LORD, so we may with an equal mind endure evil ⁸⁰,
 That in the multitude of the sorrows that I have in my heart and in my body, Thy comforts may refresh my soul ⁸¹,
 That as the sufferings of CHRIST abound in us, so through CHRIST, our consolation also may abound ⁸²,
 That we may always bear about in our body the dying of JESUS CHRIST ⁸³, That looking unto JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith, Who for the joy that was set before Him endured the Cross, we may run with patience towards the prize that is set before us ⁸⁴, That CHRIST may be magnified in our body, whether by life or death ⁸⁵, That as CHRIST hath suffered for us in the flesh, we also may arm ourselves with the same mind ⁸⁶,
 That we may not slothfully waste this accepted time, this day of salvation ⁸⁷,

We beseech Thee to hear us.

 That, being uncertain as to the coming of death and of the Judge, we may set our house in order betimes ⁸⁹,
 That, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, we may serve Thee without fear, in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life ⁹⁰,
 That we may have a desire to depart, and to be with CHRIST ⁹¹,
 That Thou wouldest vouchsafe to make and smooth all our bed in our sickness ⁹², That diseases and all evils of the body may work together for good to us who love God ⁹³,
 That, being healed of our sickness by Thy mercy, we may sin no more, lest a worse thing happen unto us ⁹⁴, That, taking to us the whole armour of God, we may be able to stand in the evil day, and quench the fiery darts of the wicked ⁹⁵, That, as in Adam we all die, even so in CHRIST we may all be made alive ⁹⁶,

 LORD, and whether we die, we may die unto the LORD ⁹⁷,

That, in the last conflict, we may resist, strong in the faith, the roaring lion ¹⁰¹,

That we may die the death of the righteous, and that our last end may be like his ¹⁰²,

That Thou wouldest lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death, lest mine enemy prevail against me ¹⁰³,

That Thou wouldest deliver me from the body of this death ¹⁰⁴,

That Thou wouldest bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto Thy Name ¹⁰⁵,

That when we are dying, Thou wouldest comfort us with the penitent thief, by Thy most sweet promise, and the expectation of Thy kingdom ¹⁰⁶,

That Thou wouldest not enter into judgment with Thy servant, because in Thy sight shall no man living be justified ¹⁰⁷,

LET US PRAY.

O God, Who by the patience of Thine Only Begotten, didst crush the pride of the ancient enemy, grant to us, we beseech Thee, worthily to commemorate those things which He suffered for us, and so, after His example, patiently to endure all ad-and of Thy most tender mercy didst re-make the human race, Who when man was cast down from eternal happiness by the malice of the devil, didst redeem him by the Precious Blood of Thine Only Begotten Son, quicken us Thy servants by the strength of Thy grace, and reach out Thy Life-giving Hand to us who are lying in the dust; fill us with joy of heart and gladness of spirit; drive far from us all the snares of the enemy, and send to us the messenger of health, the angel of peace, that he may raise us up from sorrow by Thy consolations, whereby we may obtain help at this present time, and in the time to come everlasting rewards.

O God, by Whose appointment the moments of our life pass away, receive the humble prayers of Thy servants who cry unto Thee, that we being delivered from all sickness and adversity, may praise Thee with everlasting thanksgiving; through our LORD JESUS CHRIST Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, one God, world without end. Amen.
